Dear Dr. Parungao:

Warm greetings!

To further increase a stronger network to uphold and enhance cultural activities at the local level and at the same time our advocacy to promote, conserve and protect our important cultural properties, the office of the undersigned through technical assistance of National Commission for Culture and the Arts will spearhead the Cultural Mapping Program in our city. Said program aims to identify the distinct cultural resources and to properly build, record and maintain comprehensive database on culture and heritage.

In this regard, may I earnestly ask your kind assistance by providing five (5) personnel to attend the Scoping/Orientation and Negotiation Meeting on October 7, 2021 and Cultural Mapping Training of Local Team on October 18-22, 2021.

The orientation meeting aims to introduce the salient information and processes involved in the project. Please see information and link below:
